

CODE OF CONDUCT

ALCHEMY RESOURCES LIMITED ("COMPANY")

This Code of Conduct sets out the principles and standards which the Board, management and employees of the Company are encouraged to strive towards when dealing with each other, shareholders, other stakeholders and the broader community.

1. Integrity

The Board and senior executives are committed to conducting themselves with integrity and honesty in accordance with this Code of Conduct.

Directors, management and employees shall deal with the Company's customers, suppliers, competitors and each other with honesty, fairness and integrity and observe the rule and spirit of the legal and regulatory environment in which the Company operates.

2. Responsibility to Shareholders

The Company aims:

- (a) to increase shareholder value within an appropriate framework which safeguards the rights and interests of the Company's shareholders and the financial community; and
- (b) to comply with systems of control and accountability which the Company has in place as part of its corporate governance with openness and integrity.

3. Respect for the Law

The Company is to comply with all legislative and common law requirements which affect its business wherever it operates. Where the Company has operations overseas, it shall comply with the relevant local laws as well as any applicable Australian laws. Any transgression from the applicable legal rules is to be reported to the Managing Director (or equivalent) as soon as a person becomes aware of such a transgression.

4. Conflicts of Interest

Directors, management and employees must not involve themselves in situations where there is a real or apparent conflict of interest between them as individuals and the interests of the Company. Where a real or apparent conflict of interest arises, the matter should be brought to the attention of:

- (a) the Chair in the case of a Board member or the Managing Director (or equivalent);
- (b) the Managing Director (or equivalent) in the case of a member of management; and
- (c) a supervisor in the case of an employee, so that it may be considered and dealt with in an appropriate manner for all concerned.

5. Protection of Assets

Directors, management and employees must protect the assets of the Company to ensure their availability for legitimate business purposes and ensure that all corporate opportunities are enjoyed by the Company and that no property, information or position belonging to the Company or opportunity arising from these are used for personal gain or to compete with the Company.

6. Confidential Information

Directors, management and employees must respect the confidentiality of all information of a confidential nature which is acquired in the course of the Company's business and not disclose or make improper use of such confidential information to any person unless specific authorisation is given for disclosure or disclosure is legally mandated.

7. Employment Practices

The Company will employ the best available persons with skills required to carry out vacant positions.

The Company will use its best endeavours to ensure a safe work place and maintain proper occupational health and safety practices commensurate with the nature of the Company's business and activities and in compliance with legislative and usual industry conditions.

8. Responsibility to the Community

The Company will recognise, consider and respect environmental issues and other community concerns which arise in relation to the Company's activities and comply with all applicable legal requirements.

9. Responsibility to the Individual

The Company recognises and respects the rights of individuals and will comply with the applicable legal rules regarding privacy, and the use of privileged or confidential information.

10. Obligations Relative to Fair Trading and Dealing

The Company will deal with others in a way that is fair and will not engage in deceptive practices.

11. Compliance with the Code of Conduct

Any breach of compliance with this Code of Conduct is to be reported directly to the Managing Director (or equivalent), Chair or Company Secretary, as appropriate. Breach of this Code of Conduct will be regarded by the Company as serious misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action and/or dismissal.

12. Periodic Review of Code

The Company will monitor compliance with this Code of Conduct periodically by liaising with the Board, management and employees especially in relation to any areas of difficulty which arise from this Code of Conduct and any other ideas or suggestions for its improvement. Suggestions for improvements or amendments to this Code of Conduct can be made at any time in writing to the Managing Director (or equivalent).
