Dear Jenny and Kerrie

REQUEST FOR TRADING HALT

In accordance with Listing Rule 17.1, Alchemy Resources Limited ("Alchemy")(ASX Code: ALY) is seeking a trading halt for its securities based on the following reasons:

- Alchemy has new assay results from a recently completed AC (aircore) drilling program at the Hermes Gold Project, where it recently discovered two new zones of high-grade gold mineralisation, and wishes to ensure that no trading occurs in the Company's securities until the market is fully informed about the assay results;
- Alchemy is seeking a 48 hour trading halt, commencing immediately;
- Alchemy believes that this trading halt period will allow the Company sufficient time to analyse and compile the assay results and prepare an announcement for release to the market on Wednesday 24 June 2009;
- Alchemy is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted; and
- There is no other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.

Yours sincerely
 Alchemy Resources Limited
