

NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

ALCHEMY RESOURCES LIMITED ("COMPANY")

1. Role

The role of the Nomination Committee (or, in its absence, the Board) is to assist the Board in monitoring and reviewing any matters of significance affecting the composition of the Board. This Charter defines the Nomination Committee's function, composition, mode of operation, authority and responsibilities.

2. Composition

The Board will strive to adhere to the following composition requirements for the Committee where at all possible, acknowledging that the composition of the Board may not allow adherence to requirements from time to time.

Where practicable, the Nomination Committee shall be structured so that it:

- (a) consists of a majority of independent directors;
- (b) is chaired by an independent director; and
- (c) has at least three members.

If a member ceases to be a director of the Board, that member ceases to be a member of the Committee.

From time to time, non Committee members may be invited to attend meetings of the Committee, if it is considered appropriate.

3. Operations

The Committee shall meet at least once a year and otherwise as required. Minutes of all meetings of the Committee are to be kept and a report of actions taken or recommended is to be given at each subsequent meeting of the full Board. Committee meetings will be governed by the same rules as set out in the Company's Constitution, as they apply to meetings of the Board.

4. Responsibilities

- (a) Size and Composition of the Board of Directors

To ensure that the Company's Board has the appropriate blend of directors with the necessary expertise and relevant industry experience, the Committee shall:

- (i) regularly review the size and composition of the Board and make recommendations to the Board on any appropriate changes. The review will take into account the Company's Diversity Policy;
- (ii) identify and assess necessary and desirable director competencies and provide advice on the competency levels of directors with a view to enhancing the Board;
- (iii) make recommendations on the appointment and removal of directors;
- (iv) make recommendations on whether any directors whose term of office is due to expire should be nominated for re-election; and
- (v) regularly review the time required from non-executive directors and whether non-executive directors are meeting that requirement.

(b) Selection Process of new Directors

The Committee shall review the Company's Policy and Procedure for Selection and (Re)Appointment of Directors. This procedure should be transparent to promote investor understanding and confidence in the process.

The Committee is empowered to engage external consultants in its search for a new director.

The initial appointment of a new director is made by the Board. The new Director will be required to stand for election at the Company's next general meeting.

(c) Performance Appraisal Competency

The Committee shall:

- (i) develop a process for evaluating the performance of the Board, Board committees, and when deemed appropriate by the Chair, individual Board members in accordance with the Company's Process for Performance Evaluation;
- (ii) implement ways of enhancing the competency levels of directors;
- (iii) consider and articulate the time required by Board members in discharging their duties efficiently;
- (iv) undertake continual assessment of directors as to whether they have devoted sufficient time in fulfilling their duties as directors;

- (v) develop a process for, and carry out an evaluation of, the performance of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) (or equivalent) in accordance with the Company's Process for Performance Evaluation;
 - (vi) review and implement the Company's Induction Program;
 - (vii) ensure new directors participate in the Induction Program; and
 - (viii) provide all directors with access to ongoing education relevant to their position in the Company.
- (d) Succession Plans

The Committee shall review the Company's succession plans. Succession plans are to assist in maintaining the appropriate balance of skills, experience and expertise on the Board.

5. Authority and Resources

The Company is to provide the Committee with sufficient resources to undertake its duties. The Committee has the authority, as it deems necessary or appropriate, to access advice from external consultants or specialists.

Approved by the Board of Alchemy Resources Limited on 14 September 2021.
